COURSE FEE, TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Only shortlisted applicants will be called for an interview & final selection stage.
2. Upon selection, the concerned candidate is expected to pay a sum of Rs. 2,00,000 (Rupees Two Lakhs Only) as basic tuition fee and a refundable caution deposit of Rs. 20,000 (Rupees Twenty Thousand Only) within a week after the receipt of the admission card. Any delay in this matter would result in your seat being allotted to the next candidate on the waiting list.
3. The admitted candidate is further required to pay Rs. 1,00,000 (One Lakh Only) towards production (Rs. 50,000) & post-production (Rs. 50,000) expenses of project works. This amount must be paid within three months after the date of admission.
4. Whatever additional expenses that may occur in order to finish projects; such as continuity exercise, scene exercise, song exercise, documentary exercise and thesis film in terms of external location charges, actors' remuneration, wages of lightmen etc are to be borne by the students. The institute will provide locations in the studios, camera, lights & some basic amount of video tapes free of cost.
5. In case, the concerned candidate wishes to shoot the final project on film negative instead of video, all costs incurred towards the purchase of raw stock, processing, printing or conversion to digital format for non-linear editing by way of telecine etc, should be borne by him or her.
6. All outstation candidates should find their own accommodation as the Ramanaidu Film School is not a residential institution. Nevertheless, our office will provide some assistance in locating such accommodation.
7. Upon the successful completion of class works, projects, semester exams with adequate attendance record, the candidate would be formally awarded a Post Graduate Diploma in Direction & Screenplay Writing.
